Additional Information & Rules

Dress Code – Full western attire is required for Saturday class. 2024 State Finals shirt OR western attire is required for Friday & Sunday.

Long sleeved, button up, collared shirt, a cowboy hat or safety helmet and cowboy boots (including proper pants). This dress code will be strictly enforced at all Preferred Shows, State Finals and National Finals. Anyone making a run at any of these shows that is found to be in violation of the dress code will be assessed a no time. Show producer has the right to refuse attire they deem inappropriate and waive dress code on their show bills at time of show. Directors may opt to have an alternative dress code for State Finals if approved by the home office

IBRA Membership - Memberships run from season to season (August 1st - July 31st). Please see an office staff member if you would like to purchase a membership.

Age Divisions – Age is determined based upon your age on the first day of the season.
